As result of the above news the police to-night made a descent upon the Hispano-Philip pine Club in Madrid, and seized a quantity of papers. Great excitement provails among all classes, here. In the Senate today, the Minister for the Colonies read several telegrams received from the Governor-General of the Philippine Islands, announcing the discovery of the conspiracy and stating that the object of the conspirators was to secure the independence of the islands. TROOPS FOR THE PHILIPPINES. The Singapore Free Press states the Spanish mail steamer Montserrat, which in the ordinary course of events would have left Barcelona on the 7th, had her departure accelerated to the 2nd. She brings a large number of soldiers for the rumppines and is due here on the 24th. The second steamer, the Christofore Colon, with a further detachment of troops, will leave on the 7th inst. Advices from home say that 2,000 troops will be despatched to Manila; private information seems to indicate that a much larger number will be sent.

THE Singapore Free Press of the 14th inst say :- Owing to the smart fall in price of sugar, difficulties are anticipated with Chinese sugar buyers in Socrabaya. It is reported that one large Chinese firm there has 100,000 pikula to receive, bought partly at f. 8 and partly at f. 81 per pikul. The sugar is now ready and delivery must be taken. They cannot mortgage it at over 7, and they are unable to find the wherewithal to pay the difference. They have 60,000 pikule already received and mortgaged to a Bank there. Hongkong, 22nd Sept. 1896. Sin,-Directly after the Sechuen Massacre, some gentlemen in Hongkong kindly took the matter up and arranged for a public meeting. Reuter has lately informed us that Mass Meetings have been held in England re these horrible Armenian Massacres. Will those gentlemen kindly take the matter up, and see if Hongkong cannot contribute its sympathy, and a protest against these brutal massacres? Apologising for troubling you, and humbly requesting the publication, of this in your columns, while thanking you in anticipation, I enclose my card. -Yours &c. CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOURER.

stand why it should have been assumed, especially as he frequently rends it himself by the freedom of his references to his THIS Review, which was intended to meet pursuits and his associates. The work itanecdotes strung together without logical connection, and to some extent without discrimination. Most of them would be acceptable, and even amusing, if led up to in conversation, and it may be imagined that with a well-stored memory and a keen sense of humour the author has gained |something of a reputation as a raconteur. But such gossip as he now offers, pleasing and it may be when given rive voce to sympathetic and admiring acquaintances, can hardly be regarded as literary ware.

The author is an Trishman, and his stories are exactly of the kind that his vivacious scenes in which strains of melodious patriotic airs float through an atmosphere often pervaded by the scent of whisky-Lpunch. Sometimes the stories are as full
